II. Basis for Jurisdiction

(if known)

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

WARNING: This post contains erroneous and ignorant statements... statements almost as ignorant as the dumb shit posting them. Almost.
(And p.s., the attorneys and judges know who you are, but go ahead and keep hiding behind your Facebook

Valerie Beth Hedrick Yeah, you're right Jamie. It was wrong of me to point out that this Facebook page is operated by someone with several criminal charges pending. I mean, I should just lay low so that some unsuspecting female could date him, fall in love, and then get their children taken into foster care. What nerve I have... just think of all the people I may have deterred from dating someone accused of sex crimes. What a shame.

Seems to me if you put as much Energy and time that you have used to create this group you probably would've got your kids back From the state if the system here so corrupt you should probably get out of town
